Laws of the United States.

Passed at the First Session of the Thirty-Seventh Congress.

[PUBLIC—No. 5.]

AN ACT to authorize a National Loan and for other purposes.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, That the Secretary of the Treasury be and he is hereby authorized to borrow on the credit of the United States, within twelve months from the pasage of this act, a sum not exceeding two hundred and fifty millions of dollars, or so much thereof as he may deem necessary for the public service, for which he is authorized to issue coupon bonds, or registered bonds, or treasury notes, in such proportions of each as he may deem advisable; the bonds to bear interest not exceeding seven per centum per annum, payable semi-annually, irredeemable for twenty years, and after that period redeemable at the pleasure of the United States; and the Treasury notes to be of any denomination fixed by the Secretary of the Treasury, not less than fifty dollars, and to be payable three years after date, with interest at the rate of seven and three-tenths per centum per annum, payable semi-annually. And the Secretary of the Treasury may also issue in exchange for coin, and as part of the above loan, or may pay for salaries or other dues from the United States, Treasury notes of a less denomination than fifty dollars, not bearing interest, but payable on demand by the Assistant Treasurers of the United States at Philadelphia, New York, or Boston, or Treasury notes bearing interest at the rate of three and sixty-five hundredths per centum, payable in one year from date, and exchangeable at any time for Treasury notes for fifty dollars and upwards, issued under the authority of this act, and bearing interest as specified above: Provided, That no exchange of such notes in any less amount than one hundred dollars shall be made at any one time: And provided further, That no treasury notes shall be issued of a less denomination than ten dollars, and that the whole amount of Treasury notes, not bearing interest, issued under the authority of this act, shall not exceed fifty millions of dollars.

SEC. 2. And be it further enacted, That the Treasury notes and bonds issued under the provisions of this act shall be signed by the First and Second Comptroller, or the Register of the Treasury, and countersigned by such other officer or officers of the Treasury as the Secretary of the Treasury may designate; and all such obligations, of the denomination of fifty dollars and upwards, shall be issued under the seal of the Treasury Department. The registered bonds shall be transferable on the books of the Treasury on the delivery of the certificate, and the coupon bonds and Treasury notes shall be transferable by delivery. The interest coupons may be signed by such person or persons, or executed in such manner, as may be designated by the Secretary of the Treasury, who shall fix the compensation for the same.

SEC. 3. And be it further enacted, That the Secretary of the Treasury shall cause books to be opened for subscription to the Treasury notes for fifty dollars and upwards, at such places as may be designated in the United States, and under such rules and regulations as he may prescribe, to be superintended by the assistant treasurers of the United States at their respective localities, and at other places by such depositaries, postmasters, and other persons as he may designate, notice thereof being given in at least two daily papers of this city, and in one or more public newspapers published in the several places where subscription books be may opened; and subscriptions for such notes may be received from all persons who may desire to subscribe, any law to the contrary notwithstanding; and if a larger amount shall be subscribed in the aggregate than is required at one time, the Secretary of the Treasury is authorized to receive the same, should he deem it advantageous to the public interest; and if not, he shall accept the amount required by giving the preference to the smaller subscriptions; and the Secretary of the Treasury shall fix the compensations of the public officers or others designated for receiving said subscriptions: Provided, That, for performing this or any other duty in connection with this act, no compensation for services rendered shall be allowed or paid to any public officer whose salary is established by law; and the Secretary of the Treasury may also make such other rules and regulations as he may deem expedient touching the installment to be paid on any subscription at the time of subscribing, and further payments by installments or otherwise, and penalties for non-payment of any installment, and also concerning the receipt, deposit, and safe-keeping of money received from such subscriptions, until the same can be placed in the possession of the official depositaries of the Treasury, any law or laws to the contrary notwithstanding. And the Secretary of the Treasury is also authorized, if he shall deem it expedient, before opening books of subscription as above mentioned, to exchange for coin or pay for public dues or for Treasury notes of the issue of twenty-third of December, eighteen hun-

News Items.

The story of the murder of emigrants for Oregon, at Goose Lake, is not true.

The Sacramento Union says that secessionists in Nevada County are busy in buying up arms.

The Mountaineer still asserts that there are secessionists among the Indians endeavoring to stir up a war against the whites.

Eastern papers say that Gen. Shields is to command a brigade of 5,000 men, to be raised in New York.

We suggest to the officers of the Home Guards that they might, on application to Col. Beall, obtain the assistance of some well qualified non-commissioners to perfect their companies in the necessary drill to qualify them for active service. We want the Home Guards to be ready for any emergency.

The secessionists of St. Louis are organized under the name of the "Knights of the Golden Circle." They received news of a late battle, eight hours before the Government messenger arrived. They immediately held secret meetings, but their operations were cut short by proclamation of martial law.

There is evidently an elongation of the phizzes of the secessionists since the news of the election in California has become generally known.

The attacks upon Col. Baker by the San Francisco Bulletin arise from personal enmity,—he having offended Simonton in "the distribution of office."

Gen. McClellan is ascertained to be the descendant of an old and noble Scotch family, the ruins of whose hereditary seat now form the most conspicuous object on the banks of the river Dee.

AN EFFICIENT BLOCKADE.—The twenty four new gun-boats, twelve of which are to be built in New York, for the protection of our commerce along the Mississippi, will shortly be completed, and will constitute an almost irresistible blockade. The boats are built under the direction of the Secretary of the Treasury. The Navy Department has employed a number of merchant vessels, which are now being altered and adapted for warlike purposes. The Confederates are relying upon the foreign Powers to break the blockade, and if France and England are insane enough to follow their advice, they will be woefully disappointed. In thirty days every Southern port will be hermetically sealed. As an evidence of the extraordinary vigor which has been infused into the different departments of the Government, and also as proving the efficiency of our ship-builders, it may be mentioned that the gun-boat Beauty, built by Wm. H. Webb, of New York, commenced on the 18th of June, was launched at New York yesterday, and the Alabama, lying at that port, an altered vessel, will be in readiness for sea in a few days.—Philadelphia Inquirer, August 19th.

Legal Notice.

In the Circuit Court of the State of Oregon for Multnomah County. A. M. A. Blanchet, Complainant, vs. Oswald Travaillot, Defendant. In Chancery.

TO OSWALD TRAVAILLOT, Defendant: You are hereby notified that A. M. A. Blanchet has this day filed in my office his bill of complaint, and commenced a suit against you, in which he claims that on the tenth day of June, A. D. eighteen hundred and fifty-seven, you made and delivered to him a certain promissory note for the sum of six hundred dollars, payable ten months after date, with interest at the rate of two per cent. per month, and at the same time made, acknowledged and delivered a certain mortgage deed upon lots numbered three and four in block number three, in Couch's claim or addition to the City of Portland, in the county aforesaid, as security for the payment of said note; and complainant prays for a decree of foreclosure and for the sale of the said mortgaged premises to pay the amount due upon said mortgage, to-wit: The sum of six hundred dollars and interest as aforesaid since the twentieth of September, A. D. eighteen hundred and fifty-nine, and for a judgment against you for any balance which may remain unpaid after the application of the proceeds of the sale of said property for the payment of said debt; and you are further notified that unless you appear in the Circuit Court of the State of Oregon for the County of Multnomah on the second Monday of November, A. D. 1861, and then and there answer the said bill of complaint, the same will be taken as confessed, and the prayer thereof will be granted by the Court.

In witness whereof I have hereunto set my hand and affixed the seal of this Court this 12th day of August, A. D. 1861.

MONDAY MORNING, SEPT. 16, 1861.

There will be no Indian War!

That is our opinion from all the information we can gather from the Indian countries. There are undoubtedly bad white men in some of the tribes—secesh—who would be glad to get up an Indian war; but some of the Indians have been too severely whipped lately—and others have learned valuable lessons from these whippings,—which will be likely to keep them quiet. The Cascades are safe and are likely to be. The Indians, who it was said, were determined to take that post, after finishing up their fishing, have gone to their homes in peace, in the interior. From the Nez Perces, we learn that bad men, among the Indians, can not get up a fight there. The Indians only require good treatment to make them staunch friends. There was something of a "scare" at the Dalles, a few days ago, entirely without cause. We do not believe that any considerable body of Indians are disposed to make war upon us. There are bad Indians in all the tribes, who will steal and murder, as there are bad white men, who do these things, in all communities. And there are some vagrant Indians about Salmon river,—outlaws from other tribes, who will take advantage of our people when they can. These should be "wiped out,"—an operation which would give little dissatisfaction to the Indians of the well regulated tribes. These Indians will be found on Salmon river, and on the Malheur, and in other regions in Eastern Oregon, west of Snake River. The emigrants, as they arrive, report no trouble with the Indians.

Attempt to haul down the U. S. Flag

We learn that the following affair occurred in Lane county a few days ago: A blacksmith raised a United States flag on a pole near his shop; some Secessionists gave him notice that they would take it down. He replied that he would shoot the man who attempted to do so. Looking out of his shop door, he saw two men at the pole pulling down the flag. He turned and got his rifle to shoot them. On reaching the door, the rifle was seized hold of by a man who was apprized of his design. Another man came at him in the position of striking him with his fist. The blacksmith seized a large butcher knife, struck at his assailant, and cut him in such a manner that his bowels protruded, and it was expected he would die. The wounded man made a declaration before a Justice of the Peace that the blacksmith was not to blame for what he had done. The flag was suffered to remain.

Is this attempt to disgrace the American Flag, by professed Americans, any thing less than treason?

ASYLUM FOR THE INSANE.—This institution was inaugurated by some public proceedings at the Theatre, on Friday evening last. Dr. Loryea, in the commencement of the exercises, explained the objects of the Institution—gave the names of those who had made donations to it—announced its trustees and its visiting committee—and stated that when the State, as in his opinion it should do, authorized the establishment of an Insane Institution, Dr. Hawthorne and himself would pass over the present institution and its patients into its hands. Rev. Mr. Hall, A. C. Gibbs, and E. D. Shattuck, Esqs., then addressed the meeting on the importance and necessity of the establishment of such an institution in Oregon. These addresses were good, and well received. We wish that our citizens had been more largely represented in the meeting. While we are all subject to the great calamity of insanity, and believe that such cases will occur, none of us believe that it will fall upon us. Hence, we do not generally realize the vast importance of this subject—the necessity of an establishment for the safe keeping and cure of the insane. We rejoice that a foundation is laid for such an institution in Portland. That now the poor insane fellow-creature can be provided with a home, where he will be treated as a human being. We believe that the institution will grow into importance. The State cannot fail to do something for its support; and hereafter it will be regarded as one of our noblest charities.

$110,000 in Gold Dust.

One hundred and ten thousand dollars in Gold Dust, was brought down in the steamer on Friday night—a weekly contribution from the Nez Perce mines.

Our intelligence from the mines is, that while some of the diggings at Oro Fino are exhausted, other and extensive diggings have been discovered on [illegible] branches of the Clear Water and the Salmon river.

Mr. Chittenden, of the Adams Company, on the way to the reported newly discovered gold diggings on the Malheur river, writes that they met at the Mountain House a number of packers who were at work, successfully, at mining on that river.

Our miners have scarcely broken upon the great gold field east of us.

Affairs at the Dalles.

DALLES, Sept. 12, 1861.

To the Oregonian:

These are the days of "big scares."—We had one here a day or two ago. Report came to town that 200 [illegible] Indians were encamped on Three-mile Creek, and whether their intentions were hostile or not, was not known. Some of our patriotic citizens soon set out to see about it, and on arriving at the aforesaid camp of "two hundred," encountered—two Indians and three squaws! and they were badly scared. The whole party consisted of twenty [illegible] children and dogs; but most of the men had come into town to trade and get drunk, before our party left for the seat of war. That is the kind of foundation for much that you hear of Indian hostilities in this upper country. Every body is in a "big scare," and what is not at all remarkable the Indians are scared as well as the whites. It is now believed by many that nothing but the imprudence of whites will lead to Indian difficulties this fall. Yet in view of such a possible event and in view of possible difficulties with Secesh, many of the citizens of this locality thought it prudent to organize a company of mounted volunteers.

Pursuant to call that had been circulated, a meeting was held at the court-house yesterday, at which it was determined to organize a company of eighty dragoons, that shall enlist for one year. An enrolling clerk was appointed, and the rolls are now open for subscribers. A committee was also appointed to solicit aid in equipping the company.

Secesh lives in this way: see what a position the creature has got. When the call above referred to, was handed him, he read along until he came to the paragraph—"All who stand by the old flag are invited to be present," when he tore it into atoms in a paroxysm of rage. That man was [illegible]

At the meeting yesterday, Mr. [illegible], of the Mountaineer, offered the following resolutions, which were passed with a [illegible] on a loud and [illegible]

Resolved, By the people of Wasco county, in public meeting assembled, That they view with [illegible] military department.

Resolved, That the [illegible] against traitors [illegible] that we will [illegible] any [illegible] until the traitors lay down their arms, and the Stars and Stripes float [illegible] every [illegible] and over every foot of ground that has heretofore owed allegiance to the American Flag.

Resolved, That [illegible] American Union [illegible] and that we hold as [illegible] all [illegible] who in any way sympathize with, or lend their countenance to the organization of the Southern rebellion.

Resolved, That at a time when the country is making a death-struggle for its existence, there can be but two classes of citizens, those who are for the country, and those who are against it; and recognizing the full force of this proposition, we boldly proclaim ourselves on the side of the country, and pledge, if need be, our fortunes and our sacred honor to make good this declaration.

Resolved, That we hold ourselves in readiness to meet any call that may be made upon us by our country, and that we [illegible] recommend the organization of a military company for Wasco County.

Don't these resolutions breathe the loyal spirit from Missouri?

It is sometimes said that public meetings are a farce, and resolutions a humbug; [illegible] Secesh [illegible] but they had not the courage to make their thoughts heard.

The "straight-out Republicans" [illegible] here this week, visiting the faithful and "strengthening their hands." Of course they came for the benefit of the dear people, and not to help perfect the secret machinations of secessionists.

How many itinerants of the Jo. Lane, "straight-out Republican" Curry school are there perambulating the State, to fix up things?

dred and fifty-seven, and falling due on the thirtieth of June, eighteen hundred and sixty-one, or for Treasury notes issued and taken in exchange for such notes, any amount of said Treasury notes for fifty dollars or upwards not exceeding one hundred millions of dollars.

Sec. 4. And be it further enacted, That before awarding any portion of the loan in bonds authorized by this act, the Secretary of the Treasury, if he deem it advisable to issue proposals for the same in the United States, shall give not less than fifteen days' public notice in two or more of the public newspapers in the city of Washington, and in such other places of the United States as he may deem advisable, designating the amount of such loan, the place and the time up to which sealed proposals will be received for the same, to the periods for the payment, and the amount of each installment in which it is to be paid, and the penalty for the non-payment of any such installments; and when and where such proposals shall be opened in the presence of such persons as may choose to attend; and the Secretary of the Treasury is authorized to accept the most favorable proposals offered by responsible bidders: Provided, That no offer shall be accepted at less than par.

Sec. 5. And be it further enacted, That the Secretary of the Treasury may, if he deem it advisable, negotiate any portion of said loan, not exceeding one hundred millions of dollars, in any foreign country, and payable at any designated place, either in the United States or in Europe, and may issue registered or coupon bonds for the amount thus negotiated agreeable to the provisions of this act, bearing interest payable semi-annually, either in the United States or at any designated place in Europe; and he is further authorized to appoint such agent or agents as he may deem necessary for negotiating such loan under his instructions, and for paying interest on the same, and to fix the compensation of such agent or agents, and shall prescribe to them all the rules, regulations, and modes under which such loan shall be negotiated, and shall have power to fix the rate of exchange at which the principal shall be received from the contractors for a loan, and the exchange for the payment of the principal and interest in Europe shall be at the same rate.

Sec. 6. And be it further enacted, That whenever any Treasury notes of a denomination less than fifty dollars, authorized to be issued by this act shall have been redeemed the Secretary of the Treasury may reissue the same, or may cancel them and issue new notes to an equal amount: Provided, That the aggregate amount of bonds and Treasury notes issued under the foregoing provisions of this act shall never exceed the full amount authorized by the first section of this act; and the power to issue or reissue such notes shall cease and determine after the thirty-first of December, eighteen hundred and sixty-two.

Sec. 7. And be it further enacted, That the Secretary of the Treasury is hereby authorized, whenever he shall deem it expedient, to issue in exchange for coin, or in payment for public dues, Treasury notes of any of the denominations herebefore specified, bearing interest not exceeding six per centum per annum, and payable at any time not exceeding twelve months from date, provided that the amount of notes so issued or paid shall at no time exceed twenty millions of dollars.

Sec. 8. And be it further enacted, That the Secretary of the Treasury shall report to Congress, immediately after the commencement of the next session, the amount he has borrowed under the provisions of this act, of whom, and on what terms, with an abstract of all the proposals, designating those that have been accepted and those that have been rejected, and the amount of bonds or Treasury notes that have been issued for the same.

Sec. 9. And be it further enacted, That the faith of the United States is hereby solemnly pledged for the payment of the interest and redemption of the principal of the loan authorized by this act.

Sec. 10. And be it further enacted, That all the provisions of the act entitled "An act to authorize the issue of Treasury notes," approved the twenty-third day of December, eighteen hundred and fifty-seven, so far as the same can or may be applied to the provisions of this act, and not inconsistent therewith, are hereby revived or re-enacted.

Sec. 11. And be it further enacted, That to defray all the expenses that may attend the execution of this act, the sum of two hundred thousand dollars, or so much thereof as may be necessary, be and the same is hereby appropriated, to be paid out of any money in the Treasury not otherwise appropriated.

CHEMICAL SOFT SOAP!

THE CHEAPEST, MOST ECONOMICAL AND LABOR-saving Soap ever discovered.

PATENTED OCTOBER, 1860.

This Soap recommends itself for the following reasons: It is not only the best soap in use for the wash-tub and the toilet, but it is far the cheapest; washing is performed with half the labor required by other soaps; it removes all pitch, tar and grease from woolen and cotton goods; in a word is the great desideratum of the age.

☞ Put up in five and ten pound cans. Each can warranted to make sixty and one hundred and twenty pounds respectively.

Full directions for making accompany each can.

DR. L. J. CZAPKAY'S
Private Medical & Surgical Institute,

SACRAMENTO STREET, BELOW MONTGOMERY,
Opposite Pacific Mail Steamship Company's Office, San Francisco.

ESTABLISHED IN 1854 FOR THE PERMANENT cure of all Chronic and Private Diseases, and the SUPPRESSION OF QUACKERY. Attending and Resident Physician, L. J. CZAPKAY, M. D., Late in the Hungarian Revolutionary War, Chief Physician to the 20th Regiment of Honveds, Chief Surgeon to the Military Hospital of Pesth, Hungary, the late Lecturer on Diseases of the Genito-Urinary Organs, and Diseases of Women and Children, and Honorary Member of the Philadelphia College of Medicine.

☞ Particular attention paid to the treatment of diseases peculiar to Women and Children.

Office Hours—From 9 A. M. to 9 P. M.

☞ Communications strictly confidential. Permanent cure guaranteed, or no pay. Consultations, by letter or otherwise, FREE.

Address, DR. L. J. CZAPKAY, San Francisco.

Of all diseases, the first great cause,
Springs from neglect of Nature's laws.

To the Afflicted:

Suffer not when a cure is guaranteed in all stages of secret disease—Self-Abuse, Nervous Debility, Syphilis in all its stages, Strictures, Gleet, Gravel, Diabetes, diseases of the Kidneys and Bladder, Mercurial Rheumatism, Scrofula, Pains in the Bones and Ankles, diseases of the Lungs, Throat, Nose and Eyes, Ulcers upon the Body or Limbs, Cancers, Dropsy, Epileptic Fits, St. Vitus Dance—and all diseases arising from a derangement of the sexual organs—such as Nervous Trembling, Loss of Memory, Loss of Power, General Weakness, Dimness of Vision, with peculiar spots appearing before the eyes, Loss of Sight, Wakefulness, Dyspepsia, Liver Diseases, Eruptions upon the Face, Pains in the Back and Head, Female Irregularities—and all improper discharges of both sexes. It matters not from what cause the disease originated, however long standing or obstinate the case, recovery is certain, and in a shorter time than a permanent cure can be effected by any other treatment, even after the disease has baffled the skill of eminent physicians and resisted all their means of cure. The medicines prescribed are pleasant, without odor, entirely vegetable, causing no sickness, and free from mercury or balsam. During fifteen years of practice in Europe, the Atlantic States and California, I have rescued from the jaws of death many thousands, who, in the last stages of the above-mentioned diseases, had been given up to die by their physicians, which warrants me in promising to the afflicted, who may place themselves under my care, a speedy and permanent cure. Private diseases are the greatest enemies to health, as they are the first cause of consumption, scrofula and many other diseases, and should be a terror to the human family. A permanent cure is scarcely ever effected—a majority of cases falling into the hands of incompetent persons, who not only fail to cure the disease, but ruin the constitution, filling the system with mercury, which, with the disease, hastens the sufferer into a rapid consumption. But should the disease and the treatment not cause death speedily, and the victim marries, the disease is entailed upon the children, who are born with feeble constitutions, and the current of life corrupted by a virus which betrays itself in scrofula, tetter, ulcers, eruptions and other affections of the skin, eyes, throat and lungs, entailing upon them a brief existence of suffering, and consigning them to an early grave.

Self-abuse is another formidable enemy to health, for nothing else in the dread catalogue of human diseases causes so destructive a drain upon the system—drawing its thousands of victims through a few years of suffering down to an untimely grave. It destroys the nervous system, rapidly wastes away the energies of life, causes mental derangement, prevents the proper development of the system, disqualifies for marriage, society, business, and all earthly happiness, and leaves the sufferer wrecked in body and mind, predisposed to consumption and a train of evils more to be dreaded than death itself. With the fullest confidence I assure the unfortunate victims of self-abuse, that a permanent and speedy cure can be effected, and with the abandonment of ruinous practices, my patients can be restored to robust, vigorous health.

Irregularities and all diseases of males and females treated on principles established by fifteen years of practice and sanctioned by thousands of the most remarkable cures.—Medicines with full directions sent to any part of the State, Oregon and Washington Territory, by patients communicating their symptoms by letter.

All business correspondence strictly confidential. Address DR. L. J. CZAPKAY'S Medical Institute, Sacramento street, below Montgomery, opposite Pacific Mail Steamship Co.'s Office, San Francisco.

Remarkable Instance of Medical Relief.

Certificate.—The undersigned, desiring those who may be unfortunate enough to be flicted, where a permanent relief of their obtained, feels it his duty to thus publicly sincere gratitude to Dr. L. J. Czapkay, for recovery of his health. Borne down by symptoms incident to the vicious practice ble passion in youth; depressed in body and to perform even the most trifling duty dinary avocations of life, I sought the advice sicians, who at first regarded my disease as portance—but, alas! after a few weeks, and stances, months, of their treatment, I found able horror, that instead of relief, my more alarming in their torture; and being my disease being principally confined to would be of little consequence, I despaired my health, strength, and energy; and as a with but a faint hope, called upon Dr. Czapkay examining my case, prescribed some medicine instantly relieved me of the dull pain and head. Encouraged by the result, I resolved immediately under his care, and by a strict his directions and advice my head became ideas collected, the constant pain in my back weakness of my limbs, the nervous reaction body on the slightest alarm or excitement, and evil forebodings, the self-distrust and in others, the incapability to study, and want the frightful, exciting, and at times pleasurable night, followed by involuntary discharges peared; and in fact, in two months after the doctor, I felt as if inspired by a new life but a short time ago I contemplated to end hand. With the view to guard the unfortunate into the snares of incompetent quacks, I offer this testimony to the merit and skill and recommend him to all who may stand cal advice, being assured by my own experience under his care a radical and permanent cure
